

VITA

Sally M. Miller
2004 Franklin Avenue
Stockton, CA 95204
(209) 463-5659

Born: Chicago, Illinois
April 13, 1937

Present Position:

Professor, Department of History, University of the Pacific,
Stockton, California 95211; (209) 946-2145, 946-2928
Women's Studies Coordinator (1980-1985).
Managing Editor, Pacific Historian, University of the Pacific
(1985-1987).

Academic Background:

B.A., English, University of Illinois, 1958
M.A., History, University of Chicago, 1963
Ph.D., History, University of Toronto, 1966
(Dissertation topics: "Victor Berger" Adviser: Kenneth McNaught)

Honors, Awards:

B.A. with Honors, 1958
Province of Ontario Graduate Fellowships, 1963-64, 1964-65
American Philosophical Society Travel Grants, 1971, 1976
Outstanding Educators of America Teaching Award, 1972
University of the Pacific Research Awards, 1970, 1971, 1972,
1974, 1976, 1980, 1981
University of the Pacific Distinguished Faculty Award, 1976
American Council of Learned Societies Travel Grant, 1979
University of Warwick Visiting Professorship, Centre for the Study of Social History, 1978-79
Wilton Park (British Foreign Office Conference Centre)
Participant, Steyning, England, May, 1979
California Council for the Humanities, for project and conference on Stockton's Immigrant Women, 1981
Delta Kappa Gamma, 1982
Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, 1983
Fulbright Lecturer, University of Otago, New Zealand, 1986
California Commission on the Status of Women, Susan B.
Anthony Woman of Achievement Award in Education, 1988.

Teaching Experience:

Michigan State University, 1965-67 (Instructor, Assistant Professor)
University of the Pacific, 1967- (Assistant Professor, 1967-1971, Associate, 1971-1975, Professor, 1975-)

List of Publications:

Books: Victor Berger and the Promise of Constructive Socialism, 1910-1920. Westport, Conn.: Greenwood Press Corp., 1973.

The Radical Immigrant, 1820-1920. New York: Twayne Publishing, 1974.

Flawed Liberation: Socialism and Feminism. Westport, Conn.: Greenwood Press, 1981. (editor and contributor) (Essay, "Women in the Party Bureaucracy: Subservient Functionaries" reprinted with critique and response in John Laslett and S. M. Lipset, eds., Failure of a Dream?, second edition, University of California Press, 1984.)

Kate Richards O'Hare: Selected Writings and Speeches (ed. with Philip S. Foner). Baton Rouge: Louisiana State University Press, 1982.

The Ethnic Press in the United States: Historical Analysis and Sourcebook (ed.) (27 essays by specialists, with introduction.) Greenwood Press (1987).

Articles: "A Socialist Represents Milwaukee," Historical Messenger (Milwaukee) XXII (December 1966), 132-138.

"Socialist Party Decline and World War One," Science and Society, XXXIV (Winter, 1970) 398-411.

"The Socialist Party and the Negro, 1901-1920," Journal of Negro History, LVI (July 1971), 220-229 (reprinted with critique and response in John Laslett and S.M. Lipset, eds., Failure of a Dream?, second edition, University of California Press, 1984).

"Victor Berger," in The American Biographical Encyclopedia, ed. John Garraty, New York: Harper and Row, 1974.

"Milwaukee: of Ethnicity and Labor," in Bruce M. Stave, Socialism and the Cities, Port Washington, New York: Kennikat, 1975.

"Americans and the Second International, 1900-1914," Proceedings of the American Philosophical Society, 120 (1976), #5. 372-387.

"From Sweatshop Worker to Labor Leader: Theresa Malkiel, A Case Study," American Jewish History, LXVIII (December 1978), 189-205.

Articles-continued

"American Socialist Women and the Second International," in Die Frau in der Arbeiterbewegung, 1900-1939
(Proceedings), Internationale Tagung der Historiker
der Arbeiter Bewegung (Vienna): Europaverlag, 1980,
II, 670-689.

"Experiences of Immigrant Women," (with Mary Wedegaertner), Pacific Historian, XXVI (Summer, 1982), 1-65.

"Other Socialists: Native-born and Immigrant Women in the Socialist Party of America, 1901-1917," Labor
History, XXIV (Winter, 1983), 84-102.

"Kate Richards O'Hare: Progression Toward Feminism," Kansas History, VII (winter 1984-85), 263-279.

"The Ethnic Press and its Labor Component" in Christiane
Harzig and Dirk Hoerder, eds., The Press of Labor
Migrants in Europe and North America. Bremen:
Publications of the Labor Newspaper Preservation
Projekt, 1985.

"Breadwinners and Builders: Stockton's Immigrant Women,"
The Californians, IV (1986) #4, 8-22, Pt. I; #5, 18-30, Pt. II.

"Casting a Wide Net: The Milwaukee Movement to 1920," in Donald T. Critchlow, ed., Sociolism in the Heartland:
The Midwestern Experience, South Bend: University of Notre Dame Press, 1987.

"Immigrant and Ethnic Newspapers: An Enduring Phenomenon," Serials Librarian XIV (1988), 135-143.

"Voices of Immigrant Labor," Labor's Heritage
(forthcoming in 1989).

Professional Conference Participation:

Founder: Southwest Labor Studies Association, 1978. Coordinator:
First Annual Southwest Labor Studies Conference,
April, 1975.

Coordinator: "We Also Built Stockton: Contributions of Immigrant Women," May, 1981.

Papers: "The American Present as a Reflection of the European Past: the Professional Revolutionist, Blanqui and Carmichael," a paper read to the Association for the Study of Negro Life History, October 1968, New York.

"Victor Berger: A Progressive Era, Radical and the Labor Movement," a paper read to the Pacific Northwest Labor
History Conference, April 1969, Boise.

"Milwaukee Retrospective: A Profile of Reform," Special Public Lecture, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, April 3, 1974.

"Women in the Socialist Party of America: Ideological Schizophrenia," a paper read to the Canadian Association of American Studies, October 11, 1974, Ottawa.

"Women Activists in a Male Bureaucracy," a paper read to the Organization of American Historians, April 10, 1976, St. Louis.

"Women in the Socialist Party," Special Public Lecture, Antioch College, April 12, 1976.

"The Second International's View of American Labor," Banquet address to the Pacific Northwest Labor History Conference, May 14, 1976.

"Community Building Among Minorities: The Role of Immigrant and Black Women," Distinguished Faculty Lecture, University of the Pacific, November, 1977.

"The Other Socialists," British Society for the Study of Labour History, London, May 19, 1979.

"Mary C. Barker and the Atlanta Teachers' Union," comment on, in Southern Workers and their Unions, 1880-1975: Selected Papers, The Second Southern Labor History Conference, 1978, eds. Merl E. Reed, Leslie S. Hough, and Gary M. Fink. Westport, Conn.: Greenwood Press, 1981, 78-79.

"Denver's New Departure: Irish Nationalism and the Labor Movement in the Golden Age," comment on, in Southwest Economy and Society, V (Winter, 1981), 24-25.

"The Foreign-Language Labor Press: Rise and Decline, 1890 to WWI," Southwest Labor Studies Conference, San Diego, March 30, 1985.

"Milwaukee Social Democracy Revisited, Or 'Socialism in One City'" Australia-New Zealand American Studies Conference, Auckland, May 14, 1986.

"Uprooted Women and Men: Case Studies on 20th Century American Immigrants," Open Lecture, Otago University, New Zealand, July 9, 1986.

"Revisting Social Democracy in the United States: A Revisionist Case Study of Class Consciousness," Social History Group, Adelaide University, Australia, July 30, 1986.

Numerous Sessions Chaired and/or Critiqued: at the American Historical Association and its Pacific Coast Branch, Organization of American Historians, the Western Assn. of Women Historians, the North American Labor History Conference, the Southwest Labor Studies Assn., and the Asian Studies on the West Coast Assn. Also public lectures given at various universities and to local groups such as the American Assn. of University Women, the League of Women Voters, etc.

Work in Progress:

California Labor History, an Anthology (ed. with Robert W. Cherny).

The World's Promised Land: California and Immigration

Directory Listings:

Who's Who of American Women
Directory of American Scholars
Dictionary of International Biography
International Scholars Directory
Current Authors
The World Who's Who of Women
World Who's Who of Women in Education
Who's Who in the West
Who's Who in California
Men and Women of Distinction

Memberships:

American Historical Association
Organization of American Historians
Immigration History Society, Executive Board (1985-1988) and Program Chair, 1986-1988.
Western Association of Women Historians
International Working Class and Labor History Study Group
American Association of University Professors
Southwest Labor Studies Association, President (1986-88, 1988-90)

Reviewer, Panelist or Consultant:

National Endowment for the Humanities, University of Wisconsin Press, University of New Mexico Press, historical film projects, Labor History, Journal of American History, American Historical Review, Journal of American Ethnic History, American Jewish Quarterly, and Labor and Society, Journal of Ethnic History.

References:

David A. Shannon, Department of History, University of Virginia.
 Alice Kessler-Harris, Department of History, Temple University.
 Kenneth McNaught, Department of History, University of Toronto.
 John Laslett, Department of History, University of California, Los Angeles.
 David Brody, Department of History, University of California, Davis.

Basic Course Offerings:

The Progressive Era (The Emergence of Modern U.S.)
 Immigration (and Labor) History
 Women's History (U.S.)
 U.S. Intellectual History

University Committee Service (Selected List):

College of the Pacific Council
 Faculty Grievance Committee
 Affirmative Action Committee
 Faculty Research Committee
 Graduate Studies Committee
 Sexual Harrassment Policy-Making Committee
 All-University Program Review Committee,
 Committee on Reassignment
 Women's Studies Committee